

Over 40 specialty shops are nestled in and around the tree-lined village streets, ranging from an old fashioned department store to an independent bookstore, chic clothing, contemporary home design, gift, wine, coffee and children's shops. More than 20 restaurants, many owned by CIA (Culinary Institute of America) grads, offer a mix of cuisines with a shared interest in our active farm-to-table movement.

Take in a film, do some yoga, enjoy a relaxing spa treatment—it's all right here in Rhinebeck.

Rhinebeck is a place for adventure, celebration and resting your head at night at one of our cozy B&B's. Come and enjoy the four seasons, you won't want to leave.

Find us on:

EnjoyRhinebeck.com

2015 - 2016
Guide & Area Map

Rhinecliff Bridge cover photo by Craig Peyton
Oblong Books photo by Dion Ogust

